Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)

Chris Tomlin

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear,
The hour I first believed.

My chains are gone, I've been set free,
My God, my Savior has ransomed me.
And like a flood His mercy reigns,
Unending love,
Amazing grace.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be,
As long as life endures.

My chains are gone, I've been set free.
My God, my Savior has ransomed me,
And like a flood His mercy reigns,
Unending love,
Amazing grace.

The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
The sun forbear to shine,
But God who called me here below,
Will be forever mine, will be forever mine.
You are forever mine.

The Exhortation

Presider: We are here to worship Almighty God, whose purposes are good, whose power sustains the world he has made; who loves us, though we have failed in his service, who gave Jesus Christ for the life of the world; who by his Holy Spirit leads us in his way.

We give thanks for his great works, we remember those who have lived and died in his service and in the service of others; we pray for all who suffer through war and are in need; we ask for his help and blessing that we may do his will, and that the whole world may acknowledge him as Lord.

Presider: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All: And also with you.

The Collect for Remembrance Sunday

Presider: Let us pray.

Father of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen

The Collect for Peace

Presider: O God, it is your will to hold both heaven and earth in a single peace. Let the design of your great love shine on the waste of our wraths and sorrows, and give peace to your Church, peace among nations, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PSALM 116:1-8 (please sit)

All: Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his servants.

I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me;
I came to grief and sorrow. Then I called upon the name of the Lord:
"O Lord, I pray you, save my life."

Gracious is the Lord and righteous; our God is full of compassion.
The Lord watches over the innocent; I was brought very low, and he helped me.

Turn again to your rest, O my soul, for the Lord has treated you well.
For you have rescued my life from death,
my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his servants.

The Holy Gospel (please stand)

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you what ever you ask of him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."
John 11:21-27

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Message

Motet In Remembrance

Daley

The Apostles' Creed (please stand)

Presider: Let us give glory to God as we confess the faith in which the saints rejoice,

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

We pray for the needs of our world, the Church, and ourselves.

Intercessor: On this Remembrance Sunday, let us bring before the God of peace, our prayers for the world, the church and all God's people.

Let us pray to the Creator saying, God, give peace,

All: God, give peace.

The Act of Penitence

Presider: Let us confess to God the sins and shortcomings of the world; its pride, its selfishness, its greed; its evil divisions and hatreds. Let us confess our share in what is wrong, and our failures to seek and establish that peace which God wills for his children.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned in thought, word and deed. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us to amend what we are, and direct what we shall be that we may do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Presider: Almighty God, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Anthem In Flanders Fields (please sit)

Jacobson/Emerson

The Act of Remembrance

Presider: Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping those who have died for their country in war; those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity, remembering especially the war dead of Christ Church Deer Park: The names are read

(please stand)

Presider: They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.

All: We will remember them.

Presider: Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by death or life: hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of your love; and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

The Act of Commitment

Presider: Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow men and women: that we may help, encourage, and comfort others, and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

All: God of grace and love. We pledge ourselves to serve you and all humanity, in the cause of peace, for the relief of want and suffering, and for the praise of your name. Guide us by your Spirit; give us wisdom; give us courage, give us hope; and keep us faithful now and always. Amen.

The Peace

Presider: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All: And also with you.

Offertory Hymn

He Knows My Name

Tommy Walker

I have a maker,
He formed my heart.
Before even time began,
My life was in his hands.

He knows my name,
He knows my every thought,
He sees each tear that falls
And hears me when I call.

I have a father,
He calls me his own.
He'll never leave me,
No matter where I go.

Prayer over the Gifts (please stand)

Presider: Gracious and righteous Lord, we are united in the love of Jesus Christ. Accept all we offer you this day, and bring us, with all your faithful people who have gone before us, into his eternal glory; who is Lord, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider: Holy God, Lover of creation, we give you thanks and praise for in the ocean of your steadfast love you bear us and place the song of your spirit in our hearts. When we turn from your love and defile the earth, you do not abandon us. Your Spirit speaks through prophets, sages, and saints in every age, to confront our sin and reveal the vision of your new creation. Joining in the song of the universe we proclaim your glory saying

Sanctus and Benedictus

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Presider: Gracious God, in the fullness of time you sent Jesus the Christ to share our fragile humanity. Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection you open the path from brokenness to health, from fear to trust, from pride and conceit to reverence for you. Rejected by a world that could not bear the Gospel of life, Jesus knew death was near. His head anointed for burial by an unknown woman, Jesus gathered together those who loved him.

He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it and gave it to his friends, saying, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave you thanks, and said "Drink this all of you, this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." And now we gather at this table in response to his commandment, to share the bread and cup of Christ's undying love, and to proclaim our faith.

All: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Presider: Breathe your Holy Spirit, the wisdom of the universe, upon these gifts that we bring to you: this bread, this cup, ourselves, our souls and bodies, that we may be signs of your love for all the world and ministers of your transforming purpose.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, Creator of all, and we bless your holy name for ever.

All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray:

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen

Breaking of the Bread

Presider: Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this bread.

All: So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Presider: These are the gifts of God, for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Communion Motet (please be seated)

Fauré

Prayer after Communion (please stand)

Presider: Let us pray.

God of love, may the death and resurrection of Christ, which we celebrate in this eucharist, bring us, with the faithful departed, into the peace of your eternal home. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our hope and our salvation.

All: Amen.

All: Glory to God, whose power working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God, from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Royal Anthem

God save our gracious queen,
long live our noble queen,
God save the queen:
Send her victorious
happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the queen.

All: Amen.

Closing Hymn

O Day of Peace

Jerusalem

O day of peace that dimly shines through all our hopes and prayers and dreams, guide us to justice, truth, and love,
delivered from our selfish schemes.
May swords of hate fall from our hands,
our hearts from envy find release,
till by God's grace our warring world
shall see Christ's promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb,
nor shall the fierce devour the small.
As beasts and cattle calmly graze,
a little child shall lead them all.
Then enemies shall learn to love,
all creatures find their true accord.
The hope of peace shall be fulfilled,
for all the earth shall know the Lord.

Dear friends at Christ Church Deer Park,

"Singing summons the Holy Spirit. Happy praises offered in simplicity and love lead the faithful to complete harmony, without discord." – Hildegard of Bingen

After prayerful discernment and careful deliberation, I have made the difficult decision to resign from my position as Interim Music Director at Christ Church Deer Park. My final Sunday will be November 21, Reign of Christ Sunday.

You may be aware that my professional pursuits are diverse, and include theological scholarship and music education as well as choral conducting and church music ministry. I have recently accepted two new opportunities: lecturing in sacred music and conducting a University Schola Cantorum. While I am excited about the professional advancement these new opportunities offer, I am also aware that they require me to make some tough decisions about letting other responsibilities go.

With the recent exciting and long-awaited news that the diocese is reintroducing choral singing, there are signs of hope for music in the church. I feel that this natural period of adjustment is the right time to move on from my ministry at Christ Church Deer Park. It is my hope that my leaving at the end of the liturgical year will allow my successor to have a fresh start for Advent and Christmas.

I began ministering at CCDP in September 2020, in the midst of a very uncertain and tumultuous time. I have sought during my tenure at the church to provide and coordinate beautiful and uplifting music for worship, to keep the choir connected and engaged, and to navigate the challenges of online and hybrid liturgies. I remain deeply grateful for the invaluable experiences of liturgical music leadership, the relationships I have formed, and the opportunities to grow and develop as a pastoral musician. In particular, I wish to thank Cheryl and the ministry staff, the wardens, the wonderful leads, musicians, and choir for the joy of their collaboration. I thank you all for your kindness, support and prayers.

I wish you and your loved ones God's continued blessings.

Sincerely, in Christ's peace,
Christina Labriola

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give you..." (John 14:27) Are you seeking contemplative peace in your life? Taizé worship is a beautiful and meditative style of Christian prayer incorporating scripture, song, and silence. This is an opportunity to enter into God's loving presence in stillness and recollection. All are welcome to participate.

We are pleased to announce that Christ Church Deer Park is collaborating with the nearby Church of the Transfiguration to bring the beautiful style of Taizé worship to more people. Parishioners from Transfiguration will be joining our Taizé services either online or in-person as they feel comfortable, and their priest Reverend Michael Perry will lead a contemplative bible reflection after the service inspired by the Brothers of the Taizé community in France. Michael spent time living at Taizé and we are grateful to be able to learn from his experience leading this form of worship. We are thrilled to be working together with Transfiguration in this way! Please join us on November 11th at 7pm as we begin this partnership. To register to attend either in person or online please visit our website: <https://christchurchdeerpark.org>

An Advent Study

Explore Advent through the stories of Zechariah and Elizabeth, Mary, the journey to Bethlehem and the visit from the Magi. Written and presented by Dr. Amy-Jill Levine, Professor of New Testament and Jewish Studies at Vanderbilt Divinity School, the internationally renowned scholar and teacher breaks open the birth narratives for us to engage in rich Advent discussions. Through videos and conversations, we will explore the relationship of the Gospel stories to the Old Testament, the role of women in first-century Jewish culture, the importance of Mary's visitation and the revolutionary implications of Mary's Magnificat, the census and the stable, the star of Bethlehem and the flight to Egypt. In Light of the World, Levine's focus is to understand Jesus in his historical context and within his own religious tradition, Judaism. Please join us for an exciting journey of faith this Advent.

Dates: Tuesdays; November 30, December 7, 14, 21

Time: 7:00-8:30

Place: Zoom

Registration: please email Cathy Gibbs (adultministries@christchurchdeerpark.org)

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge that the land on which we worship is the traditional territory of the Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee (ho-den-oh-show-nee), and Anishinabek (ah-nish-nah-bek) Nations, and most recently, the territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. This territory is part of the Dish with One Spoon Treaty, an agreement between the Anishinabek, Haudenosaunee, and allied nations to peaceably share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes.

Today, Toronto is still home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island (North America) and we seek to live in respect, peace, and right relations with them as we meet and worship on this territory. We are grateful for the resources we are using, and honour all the First Nations, Métis, and Inuit people who have been living on this land since time immemorial.
